

MediGuardian AI Report

Report Type: Clinical Biochemistry and Haematology Report

Health Score: 55/100

Priority: Medium

Doctor Visit: Required

Summary

The lab report indicates a HbA1c level of 6.6%, which falls into the 'Good Control' range but requires monitoring for blood sugar management. Additionally, the Haemoglobin level is 9.5 gms%, which is below the normal reference range, suggesting potential anaemia.

Key Findings

- HbA1c level is 6.6%, indicating good glycemic control but approaching the diabetic range.
- Mean Blood Glucose is 142.7 mg/dL, categorized as Good Control.
- Haemoglobin level is low at 9.5 gms%, indicating anaemia.

Anaemia Management

Strategies to improve low Haemoglobin levels.

Glycemic Control

Maintaining stable blood sugar levels.

Physical Activity

Incorporating light exercise into daily routine.

Dietary Habits

General dietary guidance for better health.

Doctor Consultation

Essential questions to ask your doctor.